OSHO SPEAKING ON THE NEED TO PAY FOR MEDITATION

“You pay for everything in your life, why not for godliness? Why do you want godliness for free?”

“In fact, you don't want godliness. You are ready to pay for whatsoever you want. You know that you have to pay. You don't want meditation. If it is given free, and even with prasad, then you will think about it. You are ready to go to the movie and pay for it; why should you not pay for your meditation and the lecture if you want to hear it?...”

“If you want to meditate, you pay for it. And if you really want to meditate you will be ready to pay for it; there should be no hitch about it.”

An abridged excerpt from the second question of The Discipline of Transcendence, Vol 4, Talk #10 – Awareness: Always Begin with Simple Things
